Dear all Parents/Carers

We are aware that the transition back to school may be overwhelming and you and your daughter may need some additional support and guidance with this. Therefore, the Pastoral team at the Ursuline would like to host an evening for all parents on 'Managing anxieties of returning to school' We will address all the major concerns with top tips of how to deal with this, we will also be touching on topics such as sleep routines as we know this has become an issue for many teenagers in lockdown.

We very much like you to join us online next Tuesday 14th July at 6pm and you join by using the below link
