Please note that for students in Year 11 and 13 we will provide work to be completed before the Easter holidays. More details on this will follow.

Please can parents discuss with students the protocols for engaging with the lessons online.

- a. Cameras and Microphones OFF at all times. HOYs will contact home if this rule is not followed. Students will be muted if they fail to abide by this.
- b. Students are not to use the chat for anything other than communication with the teacher. Students will be blocked if they fail to abide by this.
- c. Students upload their work where directed.
- d. Students are to use formal English in their communications. There should be no slang or emojis used and students should address teachers by name.
