

Fourth Industrial Revolution

On Thursday 10th October, we were delighted to host the Ursuline Education Network (UEN) international digital conference on AI: The Fourth Industrial Revolution. Our first ever UEN conference in England exploring the complex topic of AI and the challenges and opportunities created from its ever-increasing reach. Ursuline schools are a global network and students from our Ursuline High School, Wimbledon, were virtually joined by students and staff from eight other Ursuline schools from the United States; St Ursula Academy-Toledo, Ohio, Ursuline Academy-Cincinnati, Ohio, Sacred Heart Academy-Louisville, Kentucky, Ursuline Academy-St Louis, Missouri, Ursuline Academy-New Orleans, Louisiana, The Ursuline School-New Rochelle, New York, Ursuline Academy Wilmington-Delaware, and Saint Ursula Academy-Cincinnati, Ohio.

The conference aimed to help students understand how they can engage with the power of AI, while ensuring that it is regulated and channelled in order to support Catholic social teaching, remaining firm in our virtues of leading for justice, and acting with truth and integrity. We welcomed a superb panel of speakers to present and receive questions from our assembled conference delegates, all of which shared a range of insightful perspectives. Please see our conference programme, which will give you a sense of the significance of this event, clearly profiling the students at the Ursuline.

One American teacher commented, "I wanted to extend my sincere gratitude to you and your entire school community for your putting on the event. It was incredibly meaningful and worthwhile, and my students and I thoroughly enjoyed it! The speakers were impactful, things were well organized, and it was wonderful to see the other schools come together and connect over such an important and timely topic."

Well done to all the students and staff involved, and many thanks to our speakers for their invaluable contributions; Dr. Susie Allegre - Keynote speaker, an eminent human rights lawyer and award-winning author on AI. Dr. Stephen Collins - Digital policy and regulatory expert. Sheena Creed - Gen AI expert at Thomson Reuters. JB Tanqueray - Asset allocation and fund management expert. Professor Laurence Lovat - UCL professional developing AI tools for patient diagnosis and treatment.

With special thanks to the Ursuline Education Network; in particular to Peggy McCormick-Platz (Director of UEN) and Julia Waters (school UEN representative and previous Headteacher of Ursuline High School, Wimbledon).

Dear Parents, Carers and Friends,

Thank you for your commitment to our school community this first term. We have all thoroughly enjoyed the start of the academic year and it is reflected in the excellent attendance of 95.5%. Attendance is significantly higher at the Ursuline and this is a key component of the higher rates of success of our students.

The busy half-term has been packed with events and I hope you have enjoyed reading the weekly Friday Roundup - providing an insight into school life.

We have analysed and shared the outstanding outcomes received this year by our students in the public exams. This is exemplified in the school performance data, particularly in the Progress 8 data for Key Stage 4 predicted to be +0.9 and 44% of all grades at 7+. Well done to Year 11 (2023/24) whose results place us in the top 5% of schools in the country for outcomes. We also celebrated 94% of our departing Year 13s going off to University, 93% having secured a place in their first choice or firm offer, we wish them well in their continuing educational and employment journey. A particular celebration this year was the 4 students securing places at Oxford and Cambridge, 2 undergraduate, and 2 post graduate degree courses.

As a school community, we welcomed a number of new staff, all of whom have immediately adopted the Ursuline ethos and have added to the very high standards of teaching and learning in the school. We wish them every success in the years ahead and thank them for their commitment and professionalism.

The students, once again, came together this term to celebrate the Feast of St Ursula, where we gave thanks for the gifts and talents of our students and reflected on how these can be channelled into being a force for change in the world.

In the final week this term, we had full attendance at ARD, reflected in the fantastic engagement of our parents/carers, working together to support the academic and pastoral development of the students in our care.

Wishing the entire community of the Ursuline High School a safe and relaxing half-term break. Thank you for your continued support and co-operation.

Best wishes. Mr Kelly, Headteacher

Prayer Experience

October marks the month the church celebrates 'Our Lady Of The Rosary' and on 10th October Ursuline hosted a 'Rosary Prayer Experience' in the chapel during lunchtime. The session was open to both staff and students, it involved student leaders leading the mystery reflections and the Hail Mary prayers as well as members of the school choir helping everyone sing the chorus of the hymn 'Ave Maria' ('Immaculate Mary').
